apr 2012, 10:12 PM HTC sensation at the moment, so it's going to be nice to have one that looks better and works properly. 2 in a brand new house, dual battery setup and most important dual sims! 2 yuri's revenge trainer 1.001 22 apr 2012, 01:09 AM very impressed with the overall build quality of the sensation. I want to see some Android 4.0 software on there but I think I can wait a couple months before the ICS update comes out to HTC. For that price, I think the sensation is one of the better Android devices on the market. 2 yuri's revenge trainer 1.001 02 apr 2012, 12:29 AM IMHO, the Sensation is definitely the best budget HTC at the moment. HTC should really position it as a lower-end model, like the Mini 2. This would attract more users. 2 yuri's revenge trainer 1.001 21 apr 2012, 01:09 AM I also found that HTC Sense UI was a bit buggy on my HTC sensation, but so far I did not find many issues. It is a solid OS that I really like and would recommend to friends. 2 yuri's revenge trainer 1.001 18 apr 2012, 11:56 AM some users are reporting sound quality issues on the 2.1 upgrade. Has anyone else heard of this? 1 yuri's revenge trainer 1.001 11 apr 2012, 01:43 AM I think the sensation is underrated and a really good value. But not my favourite device, cause it is very close to the mini2 and lacks a big screen. But I think a high definition (QHD) screen is going to be a nice addition. 2 yuri's revenge trainer 1.001 15 apr 2012, 01:52 AM Sensation 2 works great and looks great to boot, but it has a lot of problems. It's worth noting that if you are willing to wait for updates it is worth the wait for the additional functionality and a great camera. 1 yuri's revenge trainer 1.001 23 apr 2012, 12:14 AM I like the Sensation 2 and the build quality is excellent. I've been using it for almost two weeks now, and I think it is a very good phone. 2 yuri's revenge trainer 1.001 08 apr 2012, 01:42 AM Being a fine balance of high quality build material and solid specs, the 82157476af
